

Due to the Covid 19 outbreak and out of an abundance of caution for the health of our residents and guests, ALL meetings at the Last Chance House are suspended until further notice. The house will be unavailable to non residents during this suspension.